Numb. 1989

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday December 8. to Thursday December 11. 1684.

Naples, November 7.

THis day was publiſhed here the Truce between the two Crowns. The Gallies of the Great Duke of Tuſcany are kept in this Port by the ill weather; And the Officers are Treated by our Viceroy with great Civility; who hath offered to receive their ſick Men into the Hoſpitals of this City, and to ſend them, when well, to Legborne. On Friday laſt arrived here by Sea 350 Spaniſh Soldiers to reinforce the Gariſons in the Caſtles here.

Rome, November 18. We have advice that the Pope's Gallies and thoſe of Maltha, which have ſerved in the Venetian Fleet this Summer, are arrived at Meſſina, having a great many ſick Men on Board. Cardinal Pio had the laſt week another Audience of the Pope concerning the preſent ſtate of Affairs in Hungary; We are told the Pope will aſſiſt the Emperor with freſh ſupplies of Money to forward the Preparations for the next Campagne.

Milan, November 22. The laſt week our Governor the Count de Melgar, was preſent at a review of the Regiment of Swiſſers lately raiſed by Colonel Beroldingen, which at the ſame time received a months Pay. They write from Turin that the Marriage of the Prince of Carignan, Unkle to the Duke of Savoy, was carried ſo privately that it was not known at that Court till it was Conſummated. There is, we are told, a Treaty on foot between the Crown of France and the Duke of Mantua.

Venice, November 25. On Monday arrived here a ſmall Veſſel with Letters from General Moroſini, giving an account, that the ill weather had not ſuffered him to execute his deſigns upon the Fortreſs of Arta and ſome other places in the Golf of that name; That there were a great many ſick Men in the Fleet; That Signior Molino was come to Zant with the Men of War under his command in purſuance of the Orders he had ſent him; And that he intended to return home with the Fleet ſo ſoon as he had put Preveſa into a poſture of defence. The laſt Letters from Dalmatia inform us, that the Preveditore-General Valier and the Prince of Parma were at Lieſina, where is appointed the Rendezvous of the Troops; Not having as yet made any attempt upon Caſtel-Novo, for that the contrary Winds and ill weather have kept General Moroſini from ſending thither the Gallies and Galeaſſes that are to ſhut up the place on the ſide of the Sea. The Patriarck of Venice hath promiſed to give 3000 Ducats yearly towards the War againſt the Turks, and his Example will be followed by the reſt of the Clergy of this State. On Wedneſday laſt the Senator Zacharia Valareſſo took poſſeſſion with the uſually Solemnity of his new Dignity of Procurator of St. Mark.

Genoua, November 25. This week arrived here the William and David, and the Mary, both laden with Corn from Tabarco. The Adventure, the Eſſex Merchant, and the Hanniball are ready to ſail. The laſt week parted from hence Signior Gio. Franceſco Brignole, Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick to the Pope, to deſire his Mediation on their behalf at the Court of France. The Gallies of this Republick were according to our laſt advices at Barcelona, but had received their Orders to return hither, and intended to ſail with the firſt fair weather in company of the Gallies of Naples, Sicily, and Sardinia.

Cracow, November 16. The 9th Inſtant the King of Poland arrived at Jawarow, being met there by the Queen. The Troops are marched to their Winter-quarters, which are appointed as near the Frontiers as conveniently may be; and thoſe Provinces that are freed from them, are to contribute in Money according to the Rule that was made the laſt Year at Leopol. The Towns of Barr and Miedziboz are aſſigned the Coſſacks. The Palatin of Ruſſia, Great General of the Crown, arrived the 7th of this month at Leopol, where the Deputies for the Diſtribution of the Winter Bread are at preſent Aſſembled. The place for the meeting of the Dyet is not yet fixed, for that they ought to meet this time in Lithuania, which will be very inconvenient in the preſent Conjuncture, and therefore the King hath written to the States of Lithuania to have their Conſent that the Dyet may be held at Leopol or Lublin, which it's not doubted they will agree to. The Venetian Ambaſſador having received Orders to return home, is gone to Jawarow to take his leave of the King.

Ratisbonne, November 28. The 22. Inſtant the Imperial Commiſſioners repreſented, by a Memorial, to the States of the Empire Aſſembled here, That they had in September laſt demanded, in the name of his Imperial Majeſty, their aſſiſtance againſt the Turks; And that they had now received Orders to make freſh Inſtances for that purpoſe, for that the danger with which not only the Emperor's Hereditary Countries but all Germany is threatned by the Common Enemy, encreaſes daily; And that his Imperial Majeſty will not be able alone to oppoſe the great Forces the Turks are preparing to bring into the Field the next Summer; but that if the Electors, Princes and States of the Empire do aſſiſt him according to the Example of their Predeceſſors, it will be eaſie, under the Divine Protection, to repulſe this formidable Enemy.

Cologne,